Scholarship Opportunity

The 2013 Jack Kent Cooke Foundation Undergraduate Transfer Scholarship:

Scholarships of up to $30,000 per year to community college students and recent alumni to help them earn a four-year degree.

Minimum Eligibility Requirements:

- Be a current student at an accredited U.S. community college or two-year institution with sophomore status by December 31, 2012, or a recent graduate (since spring 2008).
- Plan to enroll full-time in a baccalaureate program at an accredited college or university in fall 2013.
- Have a cumulative undergraduate grade-point average of 3.50 or better on a scale of 4.0 (or the equivalent).
- Be nominated by a faculty representative at his or her two-year institution.
- Have significant unmet financial need.
- Have not previously been nominated for the Jack Kent Cooke Foundation Undergraduate Transfer Scholarship.

While the Foundation considers academic excellence first in evaluating candidates, competitive applicants must also demonstrate unmet financial need, which has two components:

1. Education costs that are appreciably greater than the total amount of other scholarships or grant awards.
2. Insufficient student and family income to meet educational costs.
