THE PSYCHOLOGY OF
POSITIVE SOCIAL CHANGE

Dr. Dacher Keltner

World-renowned professor of psychology at UC Berkeley & Director of the Berkeley Greater Good Science Center

Dacher Keltner is a Professor of Psychology at the University of California at Berkeley, Director of the Berkeley Social Interaction Lab, and serves as the Faculty Director of the Berkeley Greater Good Science Center. His research focuses the biological and evolutionary origins of compassion, awe, love, and beauty, as well as power, social class, and inequality.

Dr. Keltner is the author of the best-selling books Born to Be Good: The Science of the Meaningful Life, and the Compassionate Instinct, and The Power Paradox. He has also collaborated on projects at Facebook and Google and was the scientific consultant for Pixar's highly acclaimed film, Inside Out, for which he helped revise the story to accurately reflect the latest scientific understanding of emotions. An outstanding speaker, Keltner has received numerous teaching and research awards and was named one of the 50 visionaries who are changing the world by the Utne Reader.
