Academic Flexibility

Students can choose different courses before they declare their choice of major, this gives students time and options to explore their interests.

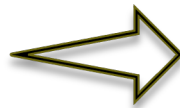

Transfer Agreements

Enrolling in a community college doesn't have to be a student's final destination. Many two-year schools offer admissions agreements with public colleges that allow qualified students to transfer their credits toward earning a Bachelor's degree.

Community College

TAKING CLASSES WHILE STILL IN HIGH SCHOOL

CONCURRENT ENROLLMENT

Las Positas College provides the opportunity for high school students in 10th, 11th, and 12th grades to enroll in college-level courses. Concurrent Enrollment allows eligible students to enroll in college courses while attending high school and simultaneously earn college credit and get a head start on their college career. Students complete assignments and are given a final grade that is posted on a Las Positas College official transcript. Students who desire to participate in Concurrent Enrollment must be recommended by their high school principal and have written parental permission. Further information on Concurrent Enrollment is available at the student's high school and the Admissions & Records Office at Las Positas College.

COURSE RESTRICTIONS FOR HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

- Concurrent Enrollment is limited to a maximum of 11 units per semester (Fall and Spring) and 6 units (Summer).
- Enrollment in Kinesiology (Physical Education) and basic skills courses (English 104 level, all English as a Second Language (ESL) courses, Math 107 level) are not allowed.
- Students who complete paperwork for Concurrent Enrollment may only register for Las Positas College classes. Those who wish to register for classes at Chabot College must complete paperwork for Concurrent Enrollment at Chabot College.

CONCURRENT ENROLLMENT ADMISSION CHECKLIST

1. Complete Admission Application.
2. Attach a current high school transcript (if applicable include official Advanced Placement (AP) scores, R4 affidavit for home school)
3. Fill out the Concurrent Enrollment Recommendation Form.
4. Fill out the Parent/Guardian Authorization Form for Minors.
5. Send the completed packet to the Admissions & Records Office by the established deadline.

Documentation received after the established deadline are not guaranteed to be accepted for enrollment. Once your packet is processed, an email will be sent with registration information. All students are strongly advised to take the English and Math assessment tests.

IF YOU HAVE ANY QUESTIONS ABOUT CONCURRENT ENROLLMENT, PLEASE CONTACT:

Community College Myths

1. Obtaining a community college degree is not as useful as a university degree.
2. It is not easy to transfer from a community college to a four-year university.
3. Students only attend community college because they can't get in to a four-year university.
4. Community colleges are inexpensive, so the education is not high quality.
5. Community College has no student life.
