Name Change for the Associated Students of Las Positas College

Las Positas students voted online via CLASS-Web on an initiative to change the name of the Associated Students of Las Positas College to Las Positas College Student Government. The vote passed and will change the well-known ASLPC acronym to LPCSG (Las Positas College Student Government).

Students Vote Yes on Student Mobility Initiative Fee

A student transportation fee that will financially subsidize the Wheels bus program to and from campus, effective fall 2018, received the go ahead from students through a campus-wide vote.

LPC Outreach Specialist Produces YouTube Video for Students

Las Positas College's Student Outreach Specialist, Miguel Alvarez, produced a four and a half minute video giving students and potential students a unique, first-person tour of the campus. The video has been viewed over 2,250 times. The video can be viewed on the Las Positas College YouTube channel.

Talk Hawks

The Las Positas Talk Hawks took home the third place Community College Sweepstakes Award at the Keeling Invitational held at Chabot College on January 26th and 27th. Eight of the Talk Hawks competed against 13 colleges and universities including University of California, Berkeley, San Jose State University, City College of San Francisco, California State University, Chico, Santa Rosa Junior College, Solano College, Ohlone College, Chabot College, Hartnell College, and Modesto College, among others. Many of the Talk Hawks are now competing in a more difficult category, but they are all up for the challenge. Stay tuned for information about their next tournament that takes place at our own Las Positas College.

Chancellor Jannett Jackson conducted three listening sessions on the LPC campus during January. Many faculty, classified professionals and administrators came to the sessions to have informal conversations and ask questions of the Chancellor. Dr. Jackson's sessions were informative and well-received. Las Positas College appreciated her time.
