Las Positas College students are transferring to four-year colleges at rates higher than students at all California Community Colleges. Moreover, Las Positas College African American and Latino students are likely to transfer at rates higher than their counterparts at all California Community Colleges. The charts below show transfer rates after six years of entering community college.

Source: California Community Colleges Chancellor's Office