ETHNIC STUDIES COURSES

ETHS 1 - Introduction to Ethnic Studies

3 units

This course introduces students to the interdisciplinary approach of Ethnic Studies and its major concepts and analyses. The course examines the histories, current issues, and unique lived experiences of four historically defined racialized American groups: Native Americans, African Americans, Asian Americans, and Latinx Americans. The course will examine major cases of struggle, solidarity, and resistance while engaging in current justice and equity movements focused on dismantling white supremacy, colonialism, imperialism, and other forms of oppression targeting communities of color. The course also focuses on the intersection of racial and ethnic identities with other forms of social identity, such as class, gender, sexuality, religion, indigeneity, and immigration status. 54 hours lecture. ADGE: 4, 6; Transfer: CSU, UC. Cal-GETC: 4.

- Credit - Not Degree Applicable
- Grading Option: Letter or Pass/No Pass

ETHS 5 - Psychology of Race and Identity

3 units

This course is an introduction to the impact of race and ethnicity on identity in the United States, which focuses on how these influence human behavior and shape one's understanding of the world around them. We will study a variety of topics related to race, ethnicity, social and cultural group developmental norms and the extent of influence these norms may have on an individual's worldview. This course seeks to strengthen diversity awareness and knowledge by engaging in difficult discussions surrounding race and identity. This course will review a broad range of theories and research findings regarding race and ethnicity's influence on human behavior and cognitive process. Topics covered include stereotypes, prejudice, discrimination, racism, the intersection between race, ethnicity and other forms of oppression, privilege, and identity development. Students may receive credit for ETHS 5 or PSYC 21, but not both. 54 hours lecture. ADGE: 4, 6; Transfer: CSU, UC; Cal-GETC: 4, 6.
