The 32nd Annual Classified Leadership Institute conference took place at the Riverside Convention Center from June 5-7. Themed "Peace, Love, and Leadership," the event offered three days filled with leadership training, professional development, and insights into effective classified participation in participatory governance processes at both local and state levels.

During a special award ceremony, the California Community Colleges Classified Senate (4CS) presents the Classified Senate President Service Award. This prestigious award is given to a Classified Senate President from a California Community College who exemplifies strong leadership skills, inspires others, and shares a compelling vision of excellence for students, staff, and the college.

Accreditation Update

PRESENTERS: ELENA COLE, TIM DRULEY, NAN HO, STUART MCELDERRY, RAJINDER SAMRA, & CAROLYN SCOTT

SEPTEMBER 4, 2024

Town Meeting, Las Positas College

Agenda

- Importance of Accreditation
- Guiding Principles
- Timeline
- How to Engage This Year

Importance of Accreditation

- Quality Assurance - ensures that institutions meet or exceed minimum standards of quality in their educational offerings, governance, student support services, and financial stability.
- Institutional Improvement - encourages continuous improvement by identifying strengths and areas for development, prompting institutions to set goals and make changes that enhance their effectiveness.
- Public Accountability - provides assurance to the public that an institution offers quality education and operates with integrity.
- Eligibility for Federal Funding - Accredited status is often a requirement for institutions to receive federal financial aid, grants, and other forms of government funding.

Guiding Principles

- Harness evidence without undue burden on committees and the Accreditation Steering Committee;
- Provide training on interpreting the ACCJC standards;
- Clarify the types and format of the evidence desired;
- Ensure the accreditation process is meaningful and engaging;
- Reflect back to committees how their work has meaning.

Timeline

2024-25

- Have conversations with committee chairs about interpreting standards
- Present the work, successes, and contributions of selected committees
- Submit annual accreditation reports
- Begin work on the Midterm Report

2025-26

- Continue conversations with committee chairs about interpreting standards, with an increased focus on evidence gathering
- Submit annual accreditation reports
- Conduct advanced work and produce a draft of the Midterm Report

Fall 2026

- October 15, 2026 - Midterm Report Due

How to Engage This Year

- Committee work
 - Which standard(s) apply?
 - How does the work demonstrate meeting the standard?
 - Recording the work: agendas, minutes, reports, etc.
 - Availability of evidence: LPC website
- Consider joining the ASC 😊

Thank you!

Academic Senate Report at Town Meeting

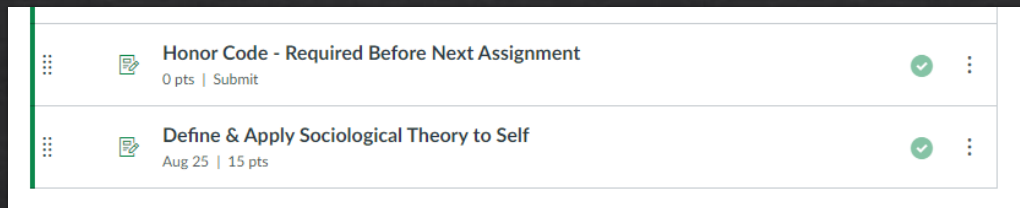

AI Committee

- ◇ We need a working group, please let me know if you are interested.
- ◇ Items so far on our agenda:
 - ◇ More inclusive definition of cheating and plagiarism through the use of AI.
 - ◇ Statement for students in the syllabi about what is and what isn't acceptable use of AI in the course.
 - ◇ Important goals for students to learn how to ethically use AI.
 - ◇ Teaching instructors how to use AI to create or enhance content in their course(s).

OPEN

- Consider adapting outcomes to reflect use of generative AI.
- Design assignments that integrate transparent use of AI into students' processes.
- Address how generative AI may be incorporated into your field.
- Explain to students that use of AI in your class does not extend to other classes.

CONDITIONAL

- Consider which learning outcomes may be negatively impacted using AI and discuss with students.
- Incorporate a low-stakes assignment that draws on AI, illustrating risks and/or benefits.
- Provide specific guidelines for what is and is not permitted.
- Provide guidelines for citing use of generative AI.

RESTRICTED

- Identify areas where AI may enhance learning or save time for higher-order thinking.
- Consider demonstrating to students how use of generative AI may be useful in your course.
- Be very clear with students about where you are asking not to use AI and why.
- Provide guidelines for citing use of generative AI.

CLOSED

- Clarify to students that use of generative AI is not allowed in your course.
- Consider reviewing and designing your assignments to emphasize process and reflection while discouraging use of AI.
- Consider accessibility when contemplating changes to assessments (e.g., hand-written exams, oral presentations).

Policy Development Decision Points

POLICY DEVELOPMENT DECISION POINTS

Process for developing academic and professional policies may vary by college district and local senates. However, as a conversation starter, a potential AI integrity policy creation decision tree is provided below with potential detailed decision points. This decision tree provides a structure approach to creating an AI academic integrity policy that is comprehensive, transparent, and adaptable.

DINNER GATHERINGS SPONSORED BY THE PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE

Mission

- ▶ Following the structure previously established for Teachers Teaching Teachers (TTT), which was modeled after the California Great Teachers Seminar, LPC faculty gather at an off-campus site, share a meal, and discuss teaching pedagogy, philosophy, and current issues. The off-campus site encourages focus and a spirit of innovation. Providing a meal builds community and energy among group members.
- ▶ The gathering agenda is set in advance by the organizers and the activities for each gathering will emerge from participant interest. The main goal of the Teaching Institute is to give participants an opportunity to engage in inter-disciplinary discussions on effective teaching methods and strategies that will support the needs of all students across the curriculum.

Mini Market Stations

There are food and hygiene products available for students in different buildings around campus. All students can pick up items at these locations. There is no sign up required to access these stations, however there are not as many items available as the Mini Market. Basic Needs will refill these once a week.

Currently the stations are located in the following areas:

- Library
- Tutoring Center
- Dream Center
- 2500 Building
- BCRC
- 3400 Building
- Computer Lab

The Market

The Market is a FREE food distribution that takes place every fourth Tuesday of the month in the 1600 building courtyard from 11 a.m.- 3 p.m. on the Las Positas Campus. This is open to students, staff and community members! Everyone is welcome!

Food Distribution Dates for the Fall 24 semester:

- August 27, 2024
- September 24, 2024
- October 22, 2024
- November: TBD
- December: TBD

CalFresh

CalFresh benefits stretch food budgets, allowing individuals and families to afford nutritious food, including more fruit, vegetables and other healthy foods. The amount of benefits a household receives is dependent on household size, countable income, and monthly expenses, such as housing and utilities.

If qualified, a student can receive up to $281 per month to purchase food. CalFresh does not affect financial aid.

Meet the Team

Dash Orel

Operations/ Student Outreach

Responsibilities:

My role involves restocking and managing inventory at the Mini Market and Welcome Center, providing customer service, and directing students around campus. I also inform students about the Basic Needs Program, present its services to the campus community, assist with applications, and collect relevant data. My responsibilities ensure that students receive the support they need and are well-informed about available resources.

Educational background/ or work experience:

I am a full-time, first generation student pursuing an AA in Political Science with Honors with a 3.8 GPA. Currently, I work at the Basic Needs Center at LPC, and also intern at Tri-Valley CAREs. Both of these positions have greatly widened my understanding of local government functions, as well as given me a better idea of what I am looking for in a future career. I am also secretary of the Political Science & Law Club on campus, where I organize meetings and encourage student engagement in civic activities such as voting.

Fun Fact:

My cat and I really like when I cook. She is my designated ingredients inspector, and has motivated me into trying new recipes and cuisine. Currently, her personal favorites are salmon onigiri and oladushki. I think she has good taste.
