

LPCJH Arts Author Submission Guidelines

- All submissions must be anonymous
 - Manuscript submissions including author and school names will be auto-rejected

Manuscript submission requirements:

- Submissions should be formatted according to the Chicago Manual of Style
 - Images used must be captioned and cited accordingly
- Critical Essays & Literature Review submission guidelines
 - Critical essay and literature review submissions must be a minimum of 12 pages long as per the Honors Program requirements
 - There is no maximum length for these submissions
- Art Project submissions
 - Accompany your art piece/project with a brief artist statement
 - Artist statements should be 150-300 words long
 - Artist statements should explain what you created, why, and how (include materials used, inspiration, personal connection)
 - All art project submissions must be accompanied by a paper/writeup as per the Honors Program requirements
 - Caption pictures of your artwork according to the Chicago Manual of Style guidelines
- Submissions may be scanned for generative AI use and will be rejected if AI writing or artwork is detected